COMMODORE'S LOG

Gordon Fletcher

We are all looking forward to a great year. This should be a very active year, focusing on membership, with a concentration on attracting younger families and promoting greater junior participation. A sub committee has been formed to focus on this, lead by our Vice Commodore Bob Shore.

As for our facilities, we are still working on the estimates for the patio/roof project and will hopefully be able to present an update in the near future.

Thanks to Rich Lemieux our out going Commodore for his tireless efforts over the last year and has handed over a strong club which hopefully we can continue to build on his efforts.

We have some changes this year in our board and wish to thank Cindy Wilson, who is retiring as Secretary after several years and is handing over to Ezra Smith, a relatively newer member. Thanks to Cindy and welcome Ezra to the board. The other change is in the Social Chairs. Ben and Betsy who stepped into this function as new members at the beginning of 2018 and pulled together a great team to provide us all with excellent and well run events, ending the year celebrating with Iceland for our New Years eve party. Thank you Ben and Betsy. The Social Chair responsibilities will be shared this year. Randy Wietman will head up hospitality and communications; Carrie and Joe Kolb and Ben Rice will manage our Beer and Liquor; Seasonal Captains including Kerri and Mark Bamford will oversee the social events for a portion of the year, making the responsibility less demanding and each event will still be pulled together by an event chair or team. Look for family pot luck dinners and Aloha Fridays from time to time! Barbara Jackson has been leading this effort and is facilitating this transition.

We also welcome Neil Bergh into the flag officer ranks, as Fleet Captain. Other members of our board remain the same. Julie Cook as Treasurer, Karen Pizzarusso as Membership Chair, Chuck Ebersole and Elaine Lemieux House Committee and Harry Church as Member at Large. Thanks to all for continued support and involvement on the board.

Our social calendar is filling up, so it should be a busy year, starting with the "Cabin Fever" event on the 26th January.

All the best for the New Year

Gordon

CROSSING THE BAR

Together they were 45 years of one heart, with a blended family of six kids, ten grandchildren, one great-grandson and a big part of the WYC family.

The accomplished, purposeful, abundant life of Barry Hoffman was dizzyingly full of marked achievements, service and harmony. Disciplined in his commitments, generous in friendships, a mentor to the young, cultured in wine and opera, skilled in air and sea piloting, rakishly handsome in his many hats (especially the straw boater), our lives were increased in knowing him.

Barry Hoffman, December 5, 2018, Commodore 1994

Our Friday night wine downs revealed the unassuming complexity of anglophile, bibliophile, and melophile that was Diane Hoffman. Internationally travelled, a whiz at cooking, enigmatologist and sailing skills, we all loved to share a chat with her.

PAST COMMODORE

Rich Lemieux

Let me begin this last OTW message with my deepest gratitude to Elaine for all the support and efforts throughout the year. The Holiday Party was the latest example of her commitment to the WYC community. Thank You to all the people who helped make this event a huge success. The Shore's spent endless hours in planning and decorating. The Smith's, Bergh's, Greene's and Randy Weitman were instrumental in set up and post party cleanup. Our carving crew led by Vin Cerbo, Bob Shore, and Bill Greene made sure our plates were amply filled with beef and turkey. Speaking of turkey, Bruce Dawson was in charge of roasting the turkey and spent a good portion of the day in the kitchen. To all who helped with serving holiday libations, let's raise a toast of gratitude! Job well done by all!

As I reflect on the past year, I am so grateful to have had the support of our Flag Officers and Board of Governors. Gordon Fletcher has been instrumental in coordinating our construction project and developing the current budget. Bob Shore contributed greatly as a member of the construction committee and led the Race Committee in a highly successful race season. Bob Kern put together a wonderful cruise going West for the first time in many years. He has also been very involved reviewing club policy and procedures. Cindy Wilson has served so capably as our Secretary, always recording accurate and timely reports. The financial records were kept up to date through the efforts of Julie Cook. No small task! Harry Church proved to be a most capable listener of membership concerns and scheduling building usage. Ben Rice and Betsy Moody, our Social Chairs proved to be exceptional leaders providing a comprehensive event planning guideline to the monthly event hosts. Chuck Ebersole, as House Co-Chair has contributed countless hours keeping our clubhouse in operating order. Karen Pizzarusso has continued doing a marvelous job in recruiting new members. Skip Whyte and Barbara Jackson have provided guidance in our annual regatta's which helps offset our annual dues. Paul Nannig has been our representative to WSA and oversaw an increased level of participation. Lastly, I want to thank Barbara Jackson for the many times we have discussed club business at all hours of the day.

Thank You all for making my year as Commodore such a pleasant experience. Whenever I needed help you were there and pitched in to lesson the load. I wish Gordon and the incoming Board much success and continued support. We have a very capable team in place to lead future endeavors.

As always, I'll see you at the club!

Over the last couple of years we have waged war on our WYC member email lists. It's tedious work, but we are beginning to see the light at the end of the tunnel.

I want to thank you for your patience as we continue to iron out the kinks. Our goal is simple: Ensure that you receive communications so all members are on the same page.

Action Items:

- Check for an important email: For each email address we have on file, you will receive a confirmation asking if you would like to keep this email on file. Keep the email addresses you want by clicking the appropriate button on EACH email.
- Join our WYC member Facebook group: Click here to join. We plan to further utilize this in 2019. OTW will now be posted to the group. This is in addition to emails you receive. All issues will still continue to be uploaded to the WYC website.

Winter has a way of making me think about warm weather and boats.

Cold weather aside it's time to start thinking about the WYC Summer Cruise. Mark your calendars: Starting on Saturday August 3, 2019 and ending with the Cruise Dinner on Thursday August 8, 2019. We will be heading east this year with specific ports-of-call yet to be determined. I will need a few volunteers to assist in determining the cruise itinerary and to help with the cruise events. If interested, please reach out to me at (401) 667-3601 or nbergh@msn.com.

With spring launchings not too far away, we need to decide who will rent two of the WYC Wickford Cove moorings for the 2019 summer season. If you would like to be considered for a mooring and you are a WYC member in good standing, then send your request to me at nbergh@msn.com. We'll draw the winners from a hat at the February WYC Board meeting. The cost is $2,000.00 for the season. Please submit your name no later than February 11, 2019.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Betsy Moody & Ben Rice

We had the pleasure and honor of being Social Chairs for 2018. We want to thank all of you who helped with events and who attended events—you were the ones who made the social events for 2018 so successful! We learned a lot about the club and its wonderful history and traditions, and we came to know many of you during the year—truly a gratifying experience. Without the support, guidance and help of so many of you, we would not have been able to do our part.

And—WOW!—by January 1, 2019, four events in less than 30 days! We will try to thank all who helped make each and every event a special occasion—our apologies to those we may have left off the lists.

First, “Celebrate a Holiday Evening” rang in the season, and a jolly time was had by all. Elaine Lemieux orchestrated a beautiful evening with festive seasonal decorations, delicious hors d’oeuvres highlighted by Lobster Cheesecake, tenderloin beef, turkey breast, tortellini and penne, and sushi expertly prepared by Dale Harrington with assist from Nancy. Elaine was assisted in her preparations and the event itself by Nancy & Bob Shore, Mary Lou & Bill Greene, Grace & John Smith, Joan & Neil Bergh, Vinny & Pat Cerbo, Joan & Bob Brockway, Randy Wietman, and Jenny Bourgeois.

Next came the WYC Family Holiday Party, organized by Tracy Nan and Ezra Smith, with assistance from Kyle Wilson and Barbara Jackson. Santa Claus—who plays Skip Whyte in real life—arrived much to the delight of the many children present. Ornament decorating and pizza eating were among the fun activities. Adults who came with children and grandchildren, or who just stopped in to view the goings on, enjoyed seeing the families with happy children enjoying the club.

Then after enjoying the holidays with family and friends, we were all ready for some celebrating on New Year’s Eve! Many members rang in the New Year on Icelandic time—champagne corks popped at 7 pm Eastern Standard time. Attendees walked into an evening in Iceland, complete with beautiful hand-crafted snowflakes, laser cut villages for table décor, and a mini Icelandic village in silhouette—created by Patty and Bob Kern. Chef Stephen Coe produced delicious heavy hors d’oeuvres and attendees danced the night away to the music of Second Avenue Band. Thanks to Patty and Bob Kern for the creativity and organization of the event, and to all those who helped: the many bartenders, as well as Bob & Nancy Shore, Dick & Elaine Lemieux, Mark Callahan, Tom & Lori Heald, and Neil and Joan Bergh—many of whom helped clean up and set up for the next morning’s New Year’s Day Brunch.

And the next morning was the New Year’s Day Brunch, ably organized by Dan and Mimi Dyer. The beautiful decorations from New Year’s Eve graced the Great Room—thanks again to the Kerns for their creative work! Omelet stations created by Stephen Coe provided a delicious breakfast, and a warm glow was had by those who sipped Bloody Mary’s—a recipe perfected by Ben with pureed celery replacing celery salt—and Mimosas. Thank you to all the helpers: Sue & Jon Colby, Cynthia Carpenter, Martha Parks, Paula Brownell, Jack & Donnalee Fronce, Vickie & Chuck McDonnell, Richard & Janet Fernie, Linda & Vinny Mitchell, Bob & Nancy Shore, & Elaine Lemieux. And a big thank-you to Kathy Brown and Sue Colby for taking linens home to clean—and to all who helped with this chore during the year, helping to make events more cost-effective.

Kyle Wilson deserves a special thanks for his help marketing events by sending out invitations and reminders and producing the monthly newsletter with notices of upcoming events and the Social Column. Thanks also to Pinkie Sweet-Holland for her help with notices.

For many of the 2018 events Linda and Vinny Mitchell helped purchase liquor and Carrie Mitchell Kolb arranged bartenders—many thanks to them as well.

We look forward to 2019 and joining all of you at WYC for events new and old this year—all the volunteers who help with events really make Wickford Yacht Club a special place!

Congratulations!

MEET THE MEMBERS

Jeri and George Levesque

The sea slings a bowline around the souls of those blessed to live alongshore. We know this is true. Forty years ago career opportunities took the Levesques far from their coastal New England roots. The hitch to the sea seemed easy to untie but held steadfast. It bore the load of our longing for the sea and seemed to tug a little bit harder year by year. Early on we compensated for the lack of salt air by raising three kids and just messing with boats (powered by fuel and wind) between the banks of the Mississippi River. We became river rats who learned to sail the “one way tide”- though we’ve never ventured far from the Alton Pool. We’re Jeri & George not Lewis & Clark! Depending on one’s perspective, the Mississippi is North America’s mightiest waterway or a stupendous drainage ditch.

We’ve migrated from the Midwest to Rhode Island at least annually for the past 40 years – much like the wanderlust eels who circulate from the Sargasso Sea to the brackish marshes of Wickford. The call of the sea brought each of our children to study at a Rhode Island university (Brown and Roger Williams Law). Delighted with their choices, we heeded the steady pull on the line that led us to return. We bought an old summer cottage nestled on the Narrow River in Middlebridge. It’s served as campus housing and our family’s summer place. It was our first grand daughter’s first home. The cottage became a compound as our crew expanded with marriages and more grand daughters (six!). Over time the house literally grew up and beyond it’s footprint. We’ve spent every summer of the 21st century here crabbing, clamming, kayaking, sailing, and running our Boston Whalers with the tides.

Eventually, the sirens of careers called to the kids as they did us so long ago. We found ourselves to be the sole occupants of our RI home – with long guest lists each summer.

George has just slipped his knot from the publishing industry while Jeri is still tethered to Ivory Towers and writing. We’re not so much Seniors seeking a place to rest - we’re more like Water Babies - ready for whatever gifts or trials the incoming tides may bring. The sea has stirred the salt in our souls and reclaimed us into her ebb and flow. We set our summer pace to the rhythm of tides, the phases of the moon, and beach traffic. We know the navigational quirks of the Pettasquamscutt better than many long time residents of South County. But, until last summer, one thing was missing. For three decades we’ve been members of a small boating club on THE River that affords us 1/50th ownership of a tiny island which floods twice a year (remember Huck Finn’s “June rise”? Now it lasts from April ‘til July, and often kicks up a’gin in the fall). We hadn’t found a similar sense belonging to a defined social group here in RI. That doesn’t happen by plunking sand chairs among strangers at the mouth of Narragansett Beach.

We longed for the camaraderie of like-minded salt soaked souls who center their social calendars in one particular harbor. We wanted to bring our 34’ Catalina sailboat, Ex Libris to the home she’d never known but was built to explore.

We've loved Wickford for far longer than we knew about the Narrow River (Jeri's family lived nearby after we moved west). And so, we knocked at WYC's door. The door opened right away with Karen's (Membership Chair extraordinaire) invitation to a Wine Down that very Friday. From then on we shared every Friday sunset and began fresh friendships with members - up until the chilly fall winds

sent us packing to St. Louis. We raised a hearty "Huzzah!" when news arrived that you've accepted us into your merry crew. Thank you Karen and our hearty sponsors (Ben & Betsy, Vincent, Jean, Jocelyne & Gene) We look forward to retiring soon to Middlebridge. We anticipate new friendships, adventures, and good times at the Wickford Yacht Club. Thank you for welcoming us aboard.

It's back!

Experience Trumps Youth – Barely

by Greg Phipps

The friendly rivalry between the Sachem Head Frostbite Fleet and Wickford Frostbite Association continued on Dec 8th at Wickford YC, known informally as the Sea Dog Worlds, held around Thanksgiving since the early 1960's. Both fleets are growing in numbers, old hulls being rescued and 9 new boats built this summer.

Team Competition - Sachem Head came to WYC this year with confidence, several of the new and many retrofitted SD's, and a record number of racers, 19 from Sachem head, compared and 17 from Wickford (we had more sailors than boats). It was a wonderful sight to see, so many SD's in the harbor racing.

Having dominated the top places of most of the recent Worlds, WFA was ready and equally confident. Maybe local knowledge was a slight factor. In the team competition (sum of the top ten finishers from each fleet), Wickford prevailed, again. WFA scored 650 while SH placed second with 1058.

Headline - But, the fun story was the top two finishers, both from Wickford. After 7 races, only three points separated former SD World Champion, Brett Nazareth (experience, earning the low 25 points for first place) and Kyle Nannig (youth, earning the next highest 28 points for second place). Kyle blasted off the line in each race. He won the first two races, sailing one of his Dad's (Paul Nannig) SD's. Paul and Kyle were one of two father / son racers (competing against and encouraging each other).

Racing - The conditions were cold, low 30's air temp, with bright, glorious sun, simply gorgeous. Chuck Allen was the PRO, running mostly windward leeward and triangle courses. The skippers were warned not to be over the start line early and also to be careful on the north side of the course, since low tide was early afternoon and the ebbing current was strong. Only one general recall but so many racers strayed too far right (north) going upwind and touching bottom (not fast in large competitive fleets).

The WNW wind challenged even the most experienced WFA frostbiter, with frequent 5-15 degree shifts and 12-14 knots with higher gusts and the occasional lull. Very challenging, but so much fun.

Results - Wickford took the top five places (Brett Nazareth, Kyle Nannig, Alex Bowen, Neil McDermott, Peter Greene). Peter Green's name on so many Frostbite plaque's and trophies at WYC, dating back to late 1960's. Peter is still very competitive as the results show, 5th. Neil sailed his yellow and green machine with consistency, placing 4th. Alex placed third, more youth. The World's was Gordon's second day racing his long-seat retrofit SD and placing 8th. He was not only fast but he concluded that the seat tanks very comfortable and confidence building in the higher gusts.

The long distance race was a race into the inner harbor, rounding a mark set near the dock behind the Rite Aid. Seeing three dozen Sea Dogs sail up and down the channel was a sight appreciated by spectators.

Thanks - Numerous individuals helped on shore and on the water to make this event a huge success. So much fun; and an example of what sailing at WYC is all about!

Of course, our WFA Frostbite season continues every Sunday afternoon, through the end of April, come down and see the racing and the fun!

BTW, we are looking for more SD's and SD parts.
